Foreword

It is with great pride that we, the Seniors of 1964, present Vol. XVI of ECHOES. Much time and hard work has been spent to make this a memorable year for us at Moncure High. We hope that this annual will give you great enjoyment and will serve as a storehouse of fond memories as they "echo" throughout the years.

The Editor

Cecil Anne Seawell

Dedication

TO MISS CECIL ANNE SEAWELL...

We, the staff of 1964, proudly dedicate this edition of the ECHOES for her interest in the students and loyalty to Moncure High School. For her friendly helpfulness and sincerity in all that she undertakes, we feel she is worthy of this recognition.

Seniors

Class History

In the year 1952, thirty-three boys and girls entered the first grade room under the supervision of Miss Esther Seawell.

During the next seven years, we laughed a lot and learned a little. We visited such places as Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill, and the Courthouse in Pittsboro. Wiener roasts, trips to the bowling allies, skating parties, and regular class parties were numerous and our homework papers were few.

In the fall of 1960, we entered the ninth grade to be faced with Mrs. Phillips as our homeroom teacher. Who ever want to see another poached egg? I must say that some of our concoctions will never be found in any recipe book. The mess was a trial to the Aq. boys and never mind what it was to Mr. Pittard. Many fingers were lost during those days.

A Sophomores, we were seen more than we were heard. This doesn't mean that we weren't around.

As Juniors we were a merry class. We had some wonderful times that year, especially working on the Jr. & Sr. Banquet. Charles found out that he couldn't fly—(Can you imagine that?)

Seniors at last! Senior ads, making pictures, basketball games, working on the annual. College Day, and thousands of every day things will be long remembered by the Class of 1964. Time is getting shorter. Most of us are looking forward to the future with high hopes. We know that it will not all be joy and laughter, but we also know that it will not be sorrow and tears.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors, do hereby leave to our underclassmen the privilege of someday becoming a Senior.

- 1, MERIE CARR, do hereby leave my nickname "Mule" to Muriel Hartcox.
- 1, HARRIET DICKENS, do hereby leave my ability to get along with the high school boys to Sherry Thomas.
- 1, EDITH GUINN, do hereby leave my height to Savonne Sauls.
- 1, ROGER HORNER, do hereby leave my large size to Jerry O'Linger.
- 1, CAROLYN HOWARD, do hereby leave my title of "Miss Moncure" to Mary Thomas.
- 1, JOYCE JUDDISTON, leave my title as "Most Dependable" to my brother, Billy.
- 1, JUDY McIVER, do hereby leave my sunglasses to Edith Thrift.
- 1, LINDA PARKER, do hereby leave my "pug" nose to Ellis Mansfield.
- 1, DOROTHY TILLEY, do hereby leave my determination to finish High School to all who are thinking about "dropping out."
- 1, CHARLES THOMPSON, do hereby leave Moncure.
- 1, TOMMY THOMPSON, do hereby leave my ability to play basketball to Mike Triley.
- 1, JAMES WOODS, do hereby leave my class skipping secrets to the up coming Senior class in hopes that they will put them into expert use.

Class Prophecy

Last night I had a very interesting dream about the Senior Class of '64. I would like very much to share it with you. A vision of Charles Thompson sitting on a bench first appeared to me. I noticed as the vision became clearer that Charles was now a judge in the Moncure Supreme Court.

I, next saw Harriet Dickens, who is now the private secretary for the President of the United States, Tommy Thompson. Tommy has just issued an order to bring Merle Carr back to earth. For the past ten years Merle has been making an extensive study of the galaxies. Making the coverage of Merle's return trip to earth is Edith Gunn, who is the star reporter for the MONCURE OBSERVER which is owned and operated by Joyce Huddleston.

Suddenly my mind focused on Linda Parker who is now selling PEP UP Pills to basketball players under the able coaching of Carolyn Howard. Carolyn is having trouble with her players skipping practice because they have become involved in reading James Wood's book, THE ART OF CUTTING CLASSES.

My final vision came to focus in the MONCURE INSTITUTE FOR THE MENTALLY UNBALANCED. Here I saw Judy Melver who is the only registered nurse at the institution on duty. Also, we see Dorothy Tiley is the bookkeeper for the institution. What a grand day for the institution because the Governor of North Carolina, Roger Hornor, is to visit them.

This, my friends, was the dream which I had of the Class of '64.

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately
 and wondering how you are getting on.
 I hope you are well and happy.
 I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often.
 I am sure you will be glad to hear from me.

To: a very nice and sweet Best wish to a very nice girl to a very pretty girl, and sweet girl,

Best ever always,
Linda

Remember all the times we had at your dad's farm. We had a hall, I hope to go with you thought
4 more wonderful years.

Stop, think. We will be Leachman's next year.

I can't wait to then.

We will get to see L. E.

and all the center groups

in high school.

Best of luck to you

of the sweetest girl!

Love always,

Lue
Parker.

Pam (Little Sister)

I really enjoyed cheering with you this year, except, of course, a few certain nights when your mind wandered and we had to keep moving and changing places with you! Next year you'll be in high school (maybe) and I hope you'll study hard. Don't ever stop trying and I hope you succeed in everything you set out to do. Best wishes.

Love,
Sarah

Pam,

You're quite a Kid! I've really enjoyed cheering with you. You made a fine cheerleader! Keep your sweet ways and all your boyfriends and you'll do fine! I'll see you in high school next year, I hope!

A friend always,
Gail

P.S. Always remember "my big mouth" (Ha! Ha!)

Best Wishes to a Wonderful Girl

Love Penny Baba
